SHIRLEY CARROL .... I.J.C. Staff President
JIMMY BROWN .... I.C.H.S. Staff President

This has been a most eventful year—homecoming, Congressional Subcommittee hearings, Southern Association Evaluation, many new students and teachers—In addition to these special events, the school system has carried on its routine functions—classes, club meetings, athletics, band parades and concerts—As you thumb through this MIRROR, we hope that you will find the reflections of your participation in these activities pleasing.

Retiring members: Glen C. Loden, William A. Roper, Herbert Nix. New board members: Dexter A. Digby, Leroy Belk, Richard Laney. (Not shown: Richard Laney, E. Wilburn).

ITAWAMBA JUNIOR COLLEGE AND AGRICULTURAL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT BODY

I wish to congratulate the MIRROR Staff for an excellent job in editing the 1955-56 yearbook. It is a thorough picture of the activities of Itawamba Junior College and Agricultural High School. This book will be a treasured possession for former students of future years.

One of our chief objectives was reached during the school year. Itawamba Junior College was recognized as being one of the leading junior colleges of the nation by being one of three junior colleges to receive Southern Association recognition. This great honor came to us largely because of a true and loyal faculty and student body.

We have accomplished many objectives during the past several years. Now, I wish to issue a new challenge to you. Let us pull up our stakes and reset them for future objectives. May these future objectives be accomplished in such a way that they will cause Itawamba Junior College and Agricultural High School to achieve even greater success.

Philip A. Sheffield
President

The cooperation of students, faculty members, and patrons of Itawamba Junior College—Lee, Monroe, Itawamba, and Pontotoc counties—is the backbone of the development of Itawamba Junior College. Continuation of this five-fold spirit of cooperation will enable this institution to continue to grow in size and in service to its people.

Congratulations to the staff of the MIRROR of 1955-56 for this excellent publication. The fond memories of the students, seen through the activities shown in this yearbook, will be a rich reward for the time and labor involved in producing this work.

Sincerely yours,
J. S. Crubaugh

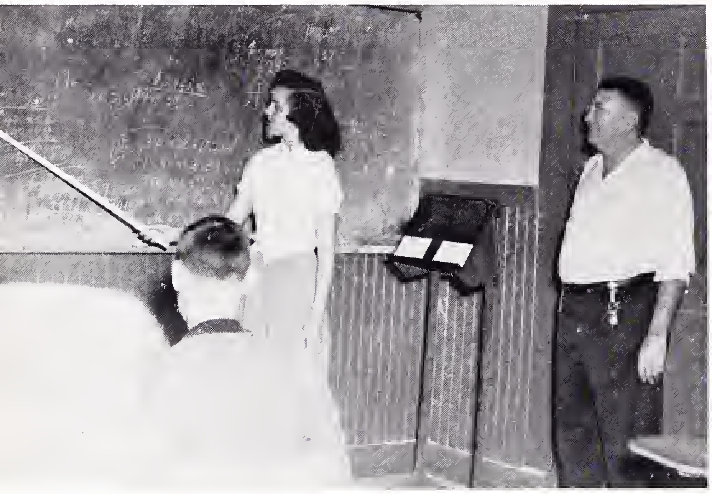
Although this old class bell no longer summons IJC students to their classes, the pictures on the following pages bear witness to the fact that classes do still meet and are keeping abreast of the times. In each department students and teachers alike reflect the business-like air of serious work which goes on during work hours.

Mrs. Coley and her second year FRENCH students are striving for improved pronunciation and increased facility in reading French by listening to recordings in the French language.

These students in BUSINESS under the guidance of Miss Hale are learning to take dictation in shorthand, which they will later transcribe using their typewriters.

In the MUSIC department Mr. Deones and his Music History and Appreciation Class are listening to Dr. Curt Sachs recording of 2000 Years of Music.

The Freshman students in Miss Holladay's English class are busy doing a timed exercise in reading; they are trying to improve their reading ability.



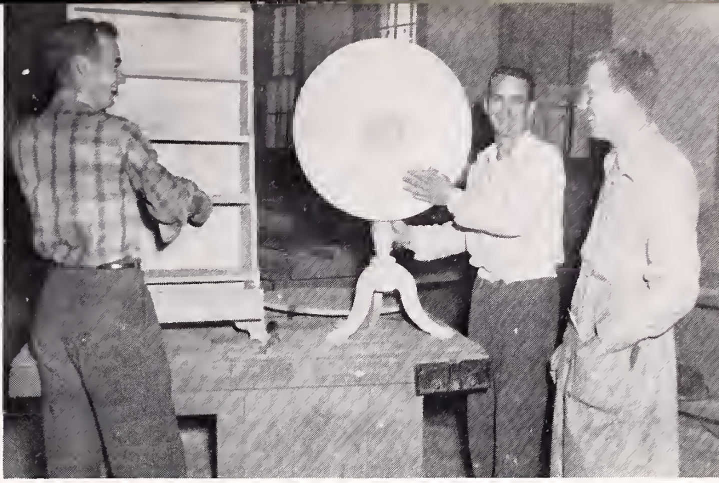
This picture is deceiving—Mr. Crubaugh's Business Arithmetic class is a big one. Can you follow the explanation which the young lady is making?

In English Literature Mrs. Timmons has a ready helper in operating the record player. This class is listening to a recording of Milton's "Sonnet on His Blindness."

Mrs. Mayhall's ENGINEERING students are engrossed in the explanation of a problem in Trigonometry.

In the department of AGRICULTURE Mr. Seitz and his students are using a Babcock milk tester to test milk for butter-fat content.

In the Department of INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION Mr. St. Clair gives individual attention to his students in Mechanical Drawing.



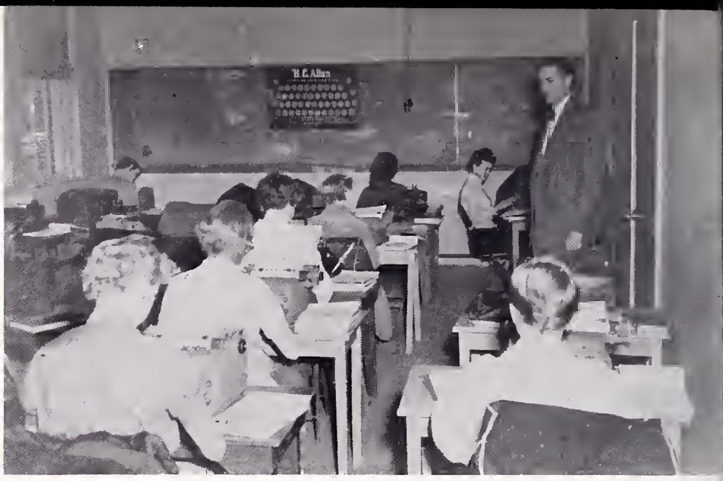
In INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION these young men are quite pleased over their accomplishments—the book case and the tilt-top table. Mr. Thrash, the instructor, shows his pleasure too.

Mr. George Davis' students look quite serious over the problems which they discuss with him in Sociology. They will be all the better prepared to face the problems of their communities.

These students in Mr. G. E. Sheffield's class are not only learning history but are also learning to stand before a group and express themselves; this is valuable training for the modern citizen.

Mr. Curtis Ikard keeps things humming around the Band Hall. With 75 band members and 25 Indianettes to claim his attention, he doesn't have much time left for humming himself.

Mr. G. W. Smith also keeps things humming in his department—Office Machines and Business Education Majors.



These well filled typing classes of Mr. I. L. Davis and Mr. Morris indicate that there are a large number of BUSINESS EDUCATION majors at IJC.

Coach Ray Thornton with the boys and Coach Othar Crawford with the girls direct physical education classes at IJC. Every college student participates in this program.

The SPEECH Department under the direction of Mr. Carl Ross attracts many students. Who wouldn't benefit from training in both preparing and delivering speeches?

Mr. R. L. Woods, Guidance Director and instructor in education, enjoys an orientation class with a group of Freshmen.

In the Biological Sciences, Mr. Argie Wilson directs the many activities of his students. Among these students are majors in NURSING and PHARMACY.

A physics class with Mr. Charles Holcomb sets up an electrical apparatus to test resistance. ENGINEERING students find courses to fit their need in physics and chemistry.

The Library, the service center of the campus, provides not only ample reading material for students, but a quiet, well lighted place to work under the direction of Mrs. Deaton and her student assistants.

Miss Edna Hicks and her HOMEMAKING majors get together following a busy three and one-half months in the food lab to discuss plans for Christmas Holidays.

Other Freshmen under Mr. N. C. Young learn the "ins and outs" of college life in a course in education.

Club Presidents

The FUTURE TEACHERS of Itawamba Junior College not only prepare themselves but help others. They assist in organizing clubs, in developing recreation programs for children of the community, and in relieving crowded study halls and helping retarded children. These Future Teachers encourage and aid in improving the campus. They are big brothers and sisters to other students. They are professional minded, observing American Education Week.

Open to talented students from Itawamba and surrounding counties is the Itawamba Junior College and High School Band. Under direction of Mr. Curtis Ikard, our band takes part in half-time shows of football games, fairs, and Christmas parades.

This year a great honor was bestowed upon our band. We were asked to take part in the Mardi Gras Parade in New Orleans as well as the Cotton Carnival Parade in Memphis.

The instrumental department of our band sponsors the Chiefs, our dance band, which plays at our school dances.

Officers of the band are: President, Don Easter; Vice President, Sarah McKinney; Secretary, Martha Jo Kelly; Treasurer, Jane Riley; Head Drum Major, Robert Sanderson; Head Drum Majorette, Sue Farmer; Lt. Drum Majorette, Mitzi Brown.

Band activities and parties are supervised by a band council made up of the officers and a member of each class.

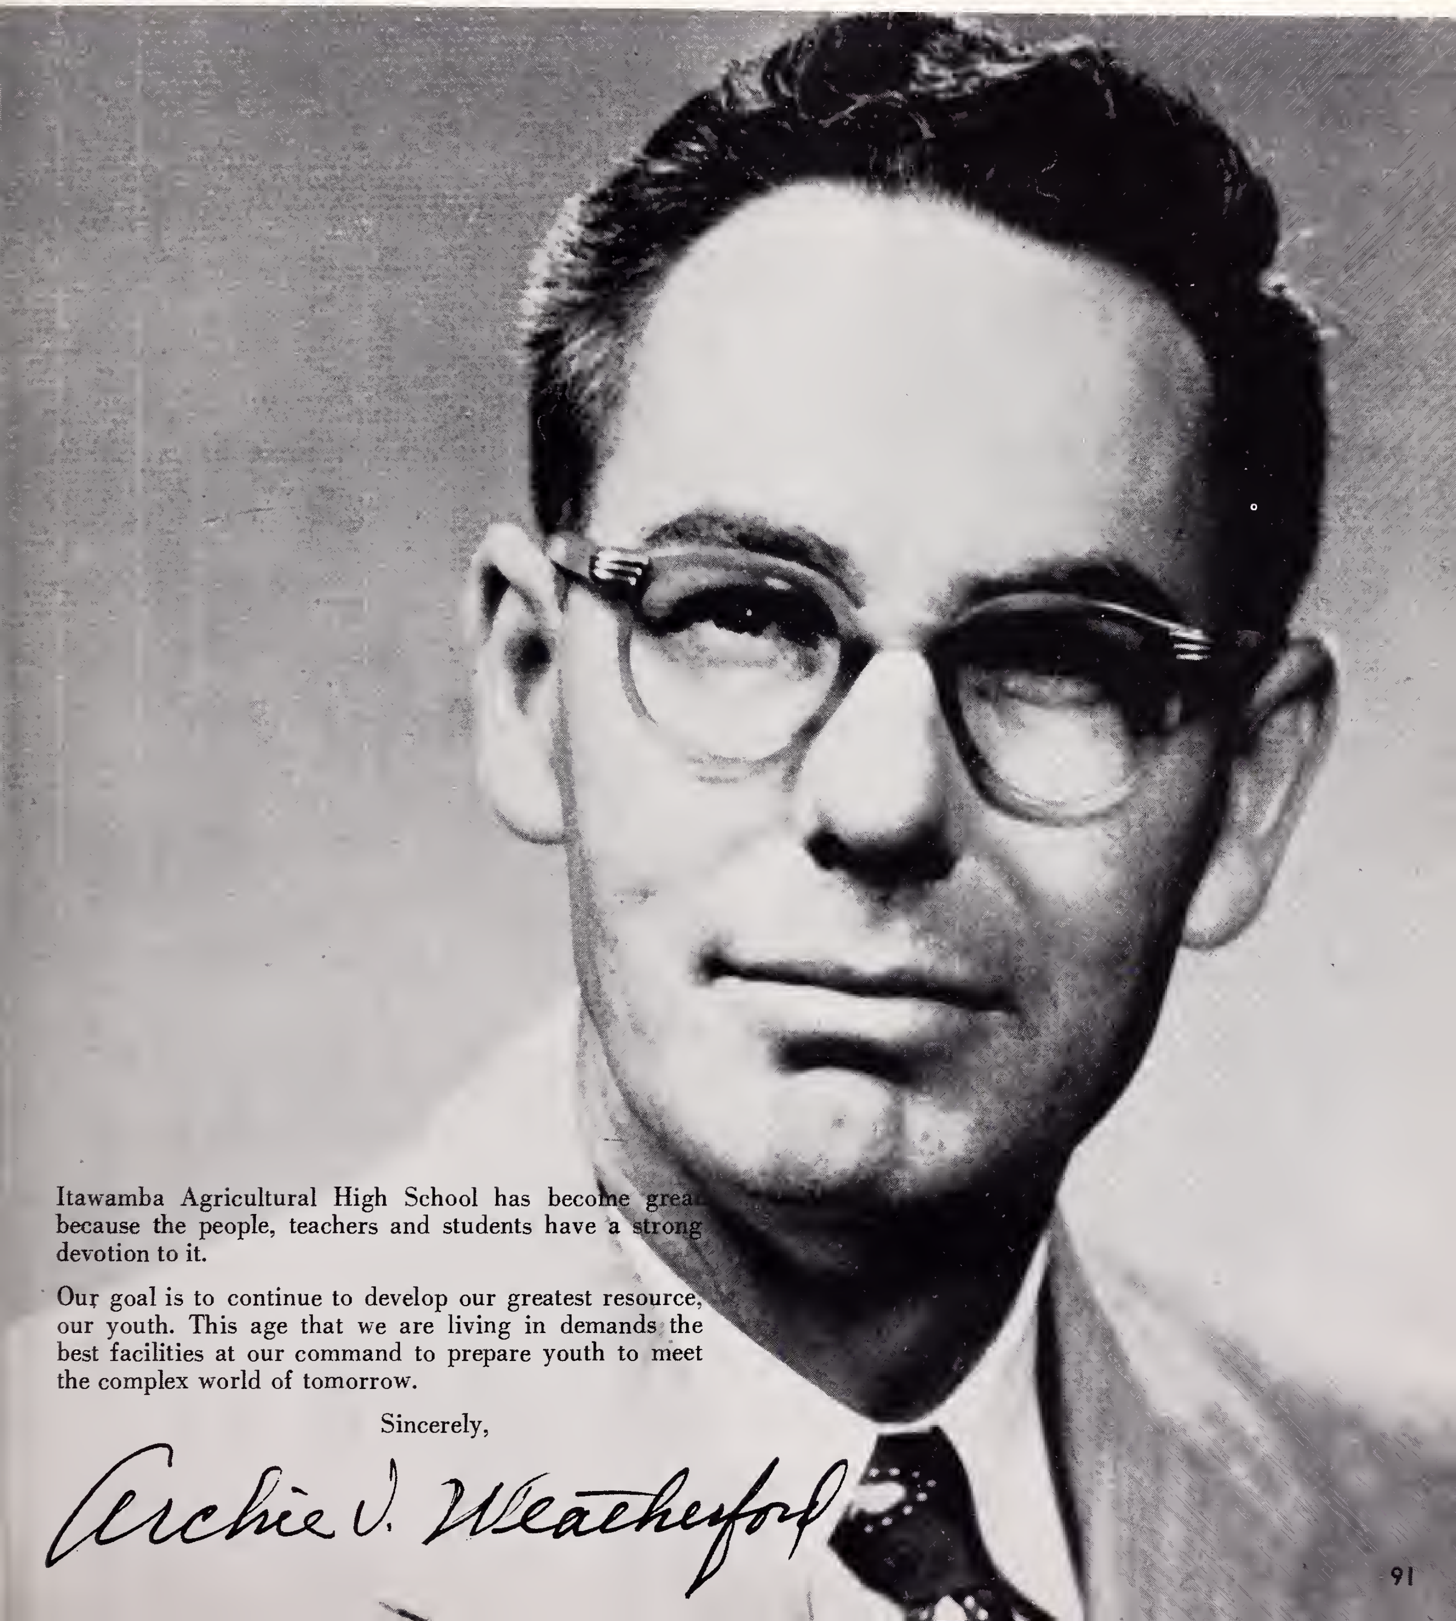
HIGH SCHOOL



Itawamba Agricultural High School has become great because the people, teachers and students have a strong devotion to it.

Our goal is to continue to develop our greatest resource, our youth. This age that we are living in demands the best facilities at our command to prepare youth to meet the complex world of tomorrow.

Sincerely,

Archie J. Weatherford

Anywhere . . . Anytime
You Trust its Quality

In this book are pictures of the friends whose companionship has made your years of study happy and memorable. We hope that Coca-Cola has added some small measure of enjoyment to your lighter moments—that Coke has been a friendly part of your most pleasant gatherings.

Wherever you go, whatever you may do, you will find that a relaxing moment now and then always helps you get the most out of life. And whenever friendly refreshment is in order, you can count on ice-cold Coca-Cola to make any pause "The Pause That Refreshes".
